European Short Film Workshops

/ November 6 - 15 2010

Objective

Promote European short films and introduce them to young europeans who would like to discover that aspect of cinema. Our goal is to gather young europeans from the age of 18 to 25 interested by culture in general, in order to give them the opportunity to acquire knowledge and experience the sphere of short film in Europe, all the while creating a bond between various short film festivals through Europe.
